

New Beginnings for New Canaan Martial Arts

Dear Students:

As you may be aware, the building we are currently in has been bought by a new owner, and my lease will not be renewed at the end of the year.

I have looked extensively in New Canaan for space that is appropriate for us and have not been successful. I widened the search, hoping to find something in a neighboring town, and I feel fortunate to have found a beautiful space in Wilton that I believe can be the home for NCMA for years to come.

The space is located at 213 Danbury Road (Rte 7) and it is just north of Route 106/Wolfpit Road. It's approximately 10 minutes from our current location, with lots of parking! The space itself is twice what we currently have. I am very excited about creating a beautiful environment to train in, and I plan on broadening our class schedule and curriculum.

Here's a picture of the building so you know what it looks like. As we go through the construction process, I'll have pictures in the studio to show you and I'll post them on line as well!

I expect to open on Monday, January 10, and I will have new schedules and directions in a package for you by mid-December.

Thank you all for your patience and support over these past two months. We've had a great run in New Canaan, and I am so grateful for the loyalty and support you have shown me. I look forward to continuing to grow and develop as martial artists in our expanded location.

Tang Soo!
